SECOND FLOOR HALL
Paintings of the Southwest

Note: To one newly come to this part of the country, the work of this group of painters is surprising and encouraging—surprising in its vigorous expressiveness and encouraging in its racy indigenousness. With such artists active almost at its doors, it is only natural that The Kansas City Art Institute should help to make their work better known. The paintings in this group are for sale; inquiries concerning prices may be made at the office of the Director.
